A screenshot of a web browser displaying the Moodle.org download page. The browser's address bar shows "http://download.moodle.org/". The page has a yellow header with the Moodle logo and navigation menus. The main content area is titled "Standard Moodle Packages" and contains text about Moodle being free and open source. Below this, there is a section for "Current stable builds" with a table of versions. The first row is for "Moodle 1.9.9+ MOODLE_19_WEEKLY", which is highlighted with a red box. To the right of the table, there are download links for ".tgz" and ".zip" formats, with a red arrow pointing to the ".zip" link. The second row is for "Moodle 1.9.9 MOODLE_199", also with download links for ".tgz" and ".zip".
